Open Forum "Les pollutions émergentes et leur cadre réglementaire"

- contenu - Agenda des événements -

Date de mise en ligne : vendredi 30 mars 2012

OIEau - IOWater - OIAgua

These international meetings are organized within the European project KARIM with 8 partners and allow to match academic skills and SME projects across the North West Europe in the field of responsible innovation and also propose funding.

This second open forum will explore existing and emerging issues including :

- REACH
- The emerging pollutants, their characterization and treatment,
- The micro-pollutants (organic or metallic), POPs,
- Nano-materials.

The aim of this forum is to share market opportunities and facilitate the exchange of ideas and knowledge. This is an ever changing arena and the field of nano-materials, in particular, is presenting new information all the time about what regulation could and should look like.
