FLOODrisk 2016 will bring together researchers, policy makers and practitioners from across the world to share experience and progress made in flood risk research, policy and management practice.

FLOODrisk 2016 will include contributions from a variety of national, European and international flood related initiatives as well as wider international practice. In particular, science policy interfacing, the applicability of flood risk research into practice, communication and international networking will be considered.

FLOODrisk 2016 welcomes contributions, and especially interdisciplinary approaches, on the following topics :

Theme 1 Characterising the flood hazard

Theme 2 Characterising the consequences

Theme 3 Characterising the flood risk

Theme 4 Risk management and reduction

Theme 5 Flood event management

Theme 6 Decision making, policy and governance
